WASHINGTON NEWS.

Dispatches Gathered at the National Capital.

THE BEHRING SEA ARBITRATION.

The Present Treaty Sent to the Senate and is Considered in Secret Session. No Recommendations or Suggestions. The Cabinet Considers the Subject. Other Items from the National Capital.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The Behring sea arbitration treaty was sent to the senate yesterday by the president, and at half past 3 o'clock the senate went into executive session to consider it on motion of Mr. Sherman, chairman of the committee on foreign relations. The message of the president and the full text of the treaty were read. There was nothing of an important nature in the president's message, it being simply a letter of transmittal, and containing no recommendations or suggestions.

After a short, concise explanation of what the treaty proposed an appeal to the senate concerning the urgent necessity for speedy action should be made on behalf of the administration by a prominent senator, an animated and interesting discussion, free from acrimony, however, followed on the subject matter of the document, and some of the remarks that were made showed a disposition on the part of some senators, particularly among those from the Pacific coast to wage earnest opposition to its approval, if not to its consideration.

Several senators were uncompromising in their attitude. They held that it was no question as to the right of the United States to the waters acquired from Russia by the Alaska treaty of 1867, and contended that the submission of this right to the decision of foreign arbitrators was a cowardly surrender on the part of this country.

Ratification under these circumstances they resented bitterly. Another argument urged against ratification of the treaty was that one of the arbitrators—Italy—had not the friendly feeling towards the United States on account of the New Orleans affair.

Much feeling, almost general in its character, was manifested over the omission from the treaty of a clause renewing the modus vivendi, and some senators urged that refusal to do this during the pendency of the arbitration proceedings justified the United States directing its armed vessels to seize any sealers, without regard to nationality, found violating the present law for the protection of seals.

The discussion lasted more than an hour and ended with the reference of the treaty to the committee on foreign relations. But yesterday's discussion is only the beginning of opposition which will probably arise when the treaty is brought before the senate for consideration.

The correspondence in the negotiation proceedings was not sent to the senate.

CABINET MEETING.

Behring Sea Matters Discussed by the President's Advisors.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Yesterday was the regular day for the meeting of the cabinet. A session was held for the first time in two weeks. There were present all the members except Secretaries Blaine, who is sick, and Foster and Noble, who are out of the city. As was expected Behring sea matters were the principal subject under discussion. The session lasted about an hour and a half, being concluded shortly after 1 o'clock.

Immediately upon adjournment President Harrison sent the treaty proposing arbitration of the Behring sea controversy to the senate for its consideration. In the course of the meeting the reply to Lord Salisbury's note, in which he announced his unwillingness to further extend the modus vivendi of last year, was presented and discussed, and later delivered to Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British minister, through whom Salisbury's note had been communicated to this government.

It is said that the reply, while expressing regret at the action of his lordship, very broadly and firmly intimates the ability and intention of the government of the United States to protect the seals and all other property rights claimed by it in the Behring sea by virtue of treaty of 1867 with Russia. The reply is said to be a dignified, but emphatic statement of the controverted rights of this country in the territory under discussion.

The cabinet, it is said, discussed the question whether or not under the conditions that exist now, the recently negotiated treaty of arbitration should be sent to the senate, and it was decided in the affirmative. It was asserted that it would not do for the United States government after having proposed arbitration, to withdraw from the arrangement made by its representatives and that of Great Britain to carry that proposition into effect, whatever position the other party may assume.

This government, it was further stated, must show its good faith in the matter. Other means than the abandonment of the proposed arbitration could be found and doubtless, would be under the new conditions arising out of the refusal of Great Britain to renew the modus vivendi by which the seal herds could be protected pending progress of the arbitration.

President Harrison, it is said, fully realizing the necessity that exists for expeditious action, if there is to be any effective protection of the seals against poaching this season, a will endeavor to reach an understanding with Great Britain, as soon as possible. Should Lord Salisbury persist in his refusal to join in a modus vivendi after receiving the reply to his recent note sent today, it is probable the president will notify him that the law of the United States against illegal sealing will be enforced against all vessels offending and that usual proclamation, warning poachers off the sealing waters will be issued. The program, however, will depend largely upon developments from time to time. They may be such as are entirely unforeseen at present, and therefore it cannot be stated with any degree of definiteness now.

Congressman Kendall's Funeral.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The arrangements for the funeral of Representative John W. Kendall, of Kentucky, who died at his residence in this city Monday night, have been completed. Brief services, conducted by the Rev. Dr. Milburn, chaplain of the house, will be held at the residence of the deceased member at 11:45 today. After the services the remains will be conducted to the depot by the congressional committee, his wife and son, and placed in the special car in which they will be taken to Moorehead, Ky. The train will leave Washington at 2 p. m.

Mr. Springer Recovering.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The improvement in Mr. Springer's condition continues, although he did not get much rest last night. The erysipelas is gradually disappearing and no return of it is anticipated. No bad results in the patient's condition are looked for, and the physicians have every hope that Mr. Springer is on the road to a sure, but slow, recovery.

EVERYTHING THEIR OWN WAY

Until They Made So Much Noise They Woke the Natives.

PITTSBURGH, March 9.—At Finleyville, twenty-two miles south of this city, on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, a gang of four highwaymen assaulted J. J. McMillen, a shifting conductor. After they had bound and gagged him he was carried some distance away and tied to a post.

The desperadoes then relieved him of his watch and money, and after threatening to kill him if he tried to make a noise they left him. They then went to the telegraph tower, and at the point of revolvers forced Albert McNeil, the operator, to surrender. He was taken down stairs and bound and gagged, after which he was also relieved of his valuables.

The robbers next turned their attention to the safe in the office. It was locked, but they placed a charge of powder in the keyhole and blew it open. The explosion wrecked the office, but the report attracted the attention of trainmen in the vicinity and the desperadoes were frightened off before they could secure the contents of the safe which were scattered over the room. McNeil and McMillen were released from their uncomfortable position and were not much worse for the experience. The entire detective force of the Baltimore and Ohio road was at once sent out in pursuit.

OUT OF HIS PULPIT.

Obnoxious Parson Conway Helped Into the Street.

NEW YORK, March 9.—Rev. E. Conway was forcibly ejected from the pulpit of the Messiah Colored Baptist church in Yonkers, N. Y., Sunday night.

The church has been under the control of the board of trustees of the Warburton Avenue Baptist church, and was closed by them on account of frequent quarrels between Pastor Conway and his congregation.

Pastor Conway attempted to preach against their orders, and when requested by E. C. Carpenter, one of the board, to vacate the pulpit he refused. A policeman was called in to forcibly eject him. Mr. Conway is a powerful man and fought desperately. It required the united efforts of the policeman and five citizens to drag him from the church. During the scuffle Parson Conway upset pews and scattered cushions right and left, but was finally landed in the middle of the street.

ADVISES FROM HONOLULU.

What Was Learned on the Arrival of the Last Steamer at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9.—The steamer Australia arrived at noon yesterday from Honolulu, bringing the following advices.

The United States steamer San Francisco arrived at Honolulu, Feb. 29, nine days from San Diego. Positive information is said to have reached Honolulu that President Harrison has declined to sign the draft of the Hawaiian treaty and submit it to the senate.

At Lanai recently, after drinking considerable awa, a native Hawaiian drink, a family of ten, with the exception of one woman, fell asleep. The woman set fire to the house, and a young man was burned to death. The whole family went crazy, and at latest accounts were running naked on the rocks.

Sullivan Answers Mitchell.

NEW YORK, March 9.—John L. Sullivan, through his manager, Duncan B. Harrison, yesterday sent the following dispatch to his backer, Charley Johnson, of Brooklyn: "Cover Corbett's forfeit, the fight to take place the last week in August, or first week in September in the club offering the largest purse, the winner to take the entire purse. The contest to take place under Marquis of Queensberry rules. Make the outside bets $10,000 or as much more as they will bet. Cover all bluffers' money for any match in the same space of time—first come first served."

Rewarding a Heroine.

NOBLESVILLE, Ind., March 9.—A purse of $10 has been made up by the people living near Mrs. Albert Whitinger, and it will be presented her in honor of the gallant way in which she protected the flag over the school house near Carmel. When the money is presented a grand rally will be held.

STARVING GERMANS.

Some People Who Are Worse Off Than Russian Peasants.

THE COLONISTS ON THE VOLGA.

Three Hundred Thousand of Them in a Destitute Condition—The Red Cross Has Taken No Notice of Them Whatever—Other Dispatches from Abroad.

LONDON, March 9.—The special correspondent of Reuter's Telegram company, who is visiting the famine-stricken portions of Russia, sends the following letter from Saratoff, under date of Feb. 22, descriptive of the German colonists on the Volga:

The German colonists on the Volga number about 800,000. They may be roughly classified as Protestants, Catholics and Mennonites.

The German colonists can only be described as so many nineteenth century Rip Van Winkles. Imagine a body of men taken out of the eighteenth century, carefully preserved and kept apart from the influences of modern progress, latter day customs and ideas, and you have the German colonists of the Volga. They all look like figures out of old German wood cuts, with their solemn, sorrowful, obstinate, clean-shaven faces, their hair dressed like a periwig, their gaudy forms and their curious old-fashioned garments. They all wear stocks, and they are all very dignified and stately. They have still the same furniture which they brought with them more than one hundred years ago, and sleep in funeral four-post bedsteads. Their women, when young, have the pure and beautiful faces of the Gretchen type.

The condition of the colonists is really worse than that of the Russian peasants in other districts, inasmuch as the former have no natural protectors or guardians. The estate owners, to whom the Russian peasants formerly belonged, still take a sort of patriarchal interest in them and help them in their distress. But the German colonists have no one to whom they can look except a few wealthy employers of labor. The colonists have a feeling that they are being left alone to die. No hand is stretched out to save them. Even the government aid, scanty enough in all conscience, has been meted out more grudgingly and in smaller quantities to them than to others. The Red Cross society has passed them by altogether. This is how it comes about that while the inhabitants of the Russian villages in Saratoff are fed, the Germans are starving.

EDWARDS PIERREPONT.

He Is Laughed At—Claim of Noble Descent Recalled.

LONDON, March 9.—The news of the death of Hon. Edwards Pierrepont, formerly minister to England, has caused sincere grief here in the social and official circles in which he mingled. Although his claim to descent from the Duke of Kingston caused him much ridicule and loss of political prestige in America, nobody here doubts that the claim is genuine, and that the reports of the extinct dukedom of Kingston are to be found in the United States.

The name of Pierrepont went with this dukedom, and is now held by the Manvers family, through the female line.

Mr. Pierrepont was highly esteemed in London society, apart from his possession of a name that goes back to the days of William the Conqueror.

The Berlin Riots.

BERLIN, March 9.—The reports of the city hospital for last week show that sixty men were seriously injured during the riots of last week. Six of the injured rioters had died already, four from fracture of the skull inflicted by roadside blows from policemen's swords, and two from complete exhaustion caused by loss of blood from swords' cuts in the neck and arms.

The publication of these reports yesterday caused much bitter comment by the Berlin press for recklessness of the police. A girl of sixteen years, who was passing along the sidewalk before the university when the riot before the palace was in progress, was run down by a platoon of police—with their swords drawn and had one cheek and her nose cut completely off. She is still alive at the charity hospital, but cannot recover.

Several other girls of seventeen or eighteen years of age who were watching the riot from the space between the opera house and the palace, sustained such severe injuries from the swords of policemen recklessly clearing the way that one will die and the rest are in a critical condition.

Whisky Man from Cork.

LONDON, March 9.—Sir Edward Hudson Kinahan, the well known manufacturer of Irish whisky, is dead. He was descended from an old Cork family, that was staunchly attached to the house of Stuart, and suffered persecution and confiscation for that reason. His father, Rev. H. Kinahan, grew rich in the whisky business and was high sheriff and lord mayor of Dublin, and justice of the peace. Sir Edward was also high sheriff of Dublin, and was created a baronet in 1887. He was very wealthy and had two county seats, besides a town residence. In politics he was a Conservative. He died at Maraboro, in Queens county.

This Is French Justice.

PARIS, March 9.—Emile Douches was arraigned yesterday for having rescued two weeks ago his sister from a mad house where she was confined by her relatives. He was arrested for abduction, and his sister was examined as to her sanity by experts. She proved to be hopelessly insane, and was returned to the asylum. Douches had nothing to say for himself except to contradict flatly the physician's statement, and he was sentenced to three months' imprisonment. He said he belonged to a society for the prevention of the kidnapping and confinement in asylums of sane persons.

The Grand Duke Dying.

LONDON, March 9.—The Grand Duke of Hesse is in a comatose condition. His death is now but a question of hours. The heir to the throne is at his bedside, and Queen Victoria is kept informed every few hours of the grand duke's condition.

Secretary Foster Leaves London.

LONDON, March 9.—Secretary Foster has started for Southampton. Before leaving he gave a hearty reception to Minister Lincoln and other prominent Americans at the Hotel Metropole.

BURNED TO DEATH.

The Awful Fate of an Eight-Year-Old Cripple.

BETHEL, O., March 9.—Albert Young, an eight-year-old crippled child, was burned to death last evening. Young is a farmer and lives near here. The child has been a life-long cripple, unable to walk. Last evening while Young was at work on his farm, Mrs. Young went out to the barn to gather eggs leaving the child playing on the floor near the fire place.

In some way the flames darted out of the fire-place, setting fire to the child's clothing. His screams attracted the mother, and when she ran in the house the child was in flames. The flames had also set fire to the curtains and furniture in the room, and it was with great difficulty that the house was kept from burning down. When the burning clothing was torn from the child, its burns were treated; but death ensued in two hours.

Sensation in Legal Circles.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 9.—A sensation has been created in legal circles here by the granting by the supreme court of leave to the Pennsylvania and Big Four railroad companies, the Western Union Telegraph company and the Pullman Car company to file an intervening petition in the famous bank case of the state against Decker. The railroads make the point that the state board of tax commissioners has no right to make original assessments except upon rolling stock, and they also ask that the court inquire into the validity of the law making such assessments. They claim that it violates the constitutional provision that all taxation shall be equal. The court grants the petition and the railroads and other companies will be represented in the argument of the bank case.

KILLED HIS BROTHER

Who Attempted to Take His Life and Then Surrendered.

MOUNT VERNON, Ky., March 9.—Isaac Snodgrass shot and killed his brother Emmett. The latter's body was literally filled with buckshot and his horse was shot and killed from under him.

Emmett was a tough man, who had killed three men—the last one being his brother Shire Snodgrass, with whom Emmett quarreled on account of a land claim. This murder caused a coolness between Isaac and Emmett, the former telling the latter not to speak to him. Emmett had tried several times to provoke a quarrel, but Isaac always evaded it.

The men met while Isaac was going along the road with a shotgun. Emmett drew his revolver and fired, but missed. Isaac then let go both barrels of his shotgun, Emmett falling from his horse. He attempted to fire again, when Isaac reloaded his gun and fired again, putting out his life. Isaac surrendered.

Some Prospects of a Compromise.

CLEVELAND, March 9.—The first show of weakness in the war between the city council and the gas companies over the ordinance reducing gas to sixty cents per thousand developed in the council last night. A resolution providing for the appointment of a compromise committee was adopted without discussion, and as it is known that both the gas companies and the council are disposed to make some concessions a settlement is not unlikely. Consumers have been paying the old rate, and the ordinance is being fought in the United States courts on the ground of unconstitutionality, the company alleging that its effects would amount to confiscation of property. Unless a compromise is effected the case is likely to remain in litigation for years.

Tarred and Feathered by White Caps.

MINNEAPOLIS, March 9.—Intelligence has been received from Elgin, Minn., that late Saturday night, a band of White Caps visited the farmhouse of John Reid, dragged Sidney Green, a farmhand, from his bed, gave him a coat of tar and feathers, rode him on a rail, and ordered him to leave the country. He returned to Reid's house, but was ordered away. Refusing to go, a warrant was sworn out for his arrest, and he is now in jail. The White Capping grew out of an elopement, in which Green and Farmer Crawford's wife were the principals.

Bishop Horstman in Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, March 9.—Bishop Horstman arrived in this city last night from Pittsburgh. It spite of the mud and falling snow thousands of people were on the street to greet him. There was a long parade composed of Catholic societies of this and surrounding cities. He was escorted to the bishop's palace, where he was greeted by local priests and laymen. This morning he officiated in an elaborate mass at St. John's cathedral, assisted by the dignitaries of the surrounding churches.

Shot Himself in the Mouth.

COLUMBUS, O., March 9.—Henry W. Limes, a farmer, twenty-seven years old, living at 704 Chapel street, shot himself in the mouth yesterday with suicidal intent. He will probably die.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 9, 1892.

In the municipal election at Lexington last Saturday, the Republican ticket polled only ninety-two votes. Republicanism doesn't seem to flourish on blue grass soil.

FRANKLIN COUNTY Republicans are almost unanimously in favor of re-nominating President Harrison. The other aspirants don't seem to be "in it," with Kentucky Republicans.

If other Kentucky cities follow Lexington's example, "tramp" doctors, so called, will have to seek other fields, or retire and live off the money their "wonderful cures" have brought them.

The "city dads" of Liberty, Ind., have adopted an ordinance to prevent minors from loafing around the streets after 7 o'clock at night. The daddies ought to set their boys a good example. A loafing father generally makes loafers of his sons.

INTEREST in political circles just now is centered on the Circuit Clerkship fight, but there are several other contests coming on. Look out for lively times. A Circuit Judge, a Commonwealth's Attorney and a Sheriff are all to be chosen next fall.

If Chili has to pay the Baltimore's crew $2,000,000 for the damages, injuries and false imprisonment resulting from that riot at Valparaiso, she will likely give our seamen a wide berth hereafter. But really that claim is so enormously large that it seems absurd to think of preenting it.

The Louisville Post suggests Henry Watterson, William Lindsay, W. C. P. Breckinridge and Simon Bolivar Buckner for delegates-at-large from Kentucky to the coming National convention at Chicago. A strong quartette, but how would the four big B's do—Buckner, Brown, Blackburn and Breckinridge?

MURAT HALSTEAD is sucking a good deal of comfort out of the late municipal elections in New York. He boasts of a net Republican gain of 110 Supervisors as compared with last year, and attributes it mainly to the Democratic "tricks of fraud," as he terms it, in getting control of the Legislature. Mr. Halstead knows very well that the recent Democratic reverses and losses in the Empire State are almost entirely due to the wrangle and bitter factional fight between the Hill crowd and Cleveland's friends.

CONTRACTS have already been let for over $125,000 worth of new buildings to be erected at Winchester this year, says the Democrat. This speaks well for the county seat of Clark. The people of Winchester have manifested a disposition for years to encourage enterprises and build up their city, and they are seeing their efforts rewarded. Other cities might learn a valuable lesson from Winchester. Maysville can be made a city of 15,000 or 20,000 population in ten years if our men of means will manifest the right spirit and invest some of their capital in industrial enterprises.

THE Louisville Post doesn't picture a very creditable condition of affairs in the Falls City. Referring to the lotteries and gamblers that infest that city, it says: "There are plenty of laws to crush these vipers and yet they flourish. Neither police officers nor court officials will take a single step toward crushing them out." But the Post concludes that Louisville would soon be in excellent shape, if the Legislature could only devise some means of compelling police officers, prosecuting attorneys and Judges to do their duty. The Post ought to know that the Legislature already has its hands full. The fault, after all, is with the people, and they can remedy the evil complained of by selecting officers who will do their duty, regardless of consequences.

The Louisville Commercial read the Frankfort correspondents of the various papers a timely and sensible lecture a few days ago. It said: "They will oblige the public and their newspapers if they will devote less space to lecturing the Legislators and telling about their inevitable parliamentary squabbles, and more to telling about what the Legislature does. For instance, one correspondent, after a half column devoted to irrelevant and unimportant parliamentary proceedings, stated that the House then went into Committee of the Whole on the Revenue bill, but not a word was given as to what was done about the Revenue bill."

If the correspondents wouldn't give so much prominence to the little parliamentary tilts between members, there would be fewer of these tiresome and time-wasting squabbles to record.

THE STATE'S LAW-MAKERS.

Items of Interest Gleaned From the Proceedings of the General Assembly.

Bills were introduced in the House at Frankfort Tuesday, as follows:
An act to better protect wage earners employed in mines.

An act to amend the General Statutes with reference to a local court of Johnson County.

A bill protecting hotel and restaurant keepers, and providing punishment for not paying bills to same.

An act to amend the common school laws.

An act to regulate the sale of intoxicating liquors in this Commonwealth. Also one to amend the statute law on salaries of public officers.

An act to authorize Covington to acquire the turnpikes in her corporate limits.

An act prescribing the qualifications of jurors in this State.

Dr. Woods offered a joint resolution, reciting that the asylums of the State are inadequate for the necessities of the insane and also that the female insane ought to be placed in separate apartments, and directing the joint committee to investigate the propriety of enlarging the charitable institutions of this character.

Representative Hart's bill creating the office of Inspector of Oil and defining his duties, was reported with a favorable expression of opinion, and given its first reading.

Some citizens of Ludlow presented a remonstrance against placing that city in the fourth class. They want to be left in fifth class.

In the Senate, Mr. Newman introduced a bill defining and extending the limits of the city of Dayton, Campbell County.

Senator Wortham offered a bill to provide for an investigation of the educational and charitable institutions of the State by Legislative Committees biennially.

Senator Hoertz offered a bill giving Carpenter, Annear & Co. the right to sue the State for $1,065 alleged to be due for work on Eddyville prison.

Railway News.
Several of the C. and O.'s officials were here a short time yesterday afternoon en route East.

It is said the bill pending in the Legislature fixing the maximum fare for passengers at two cents a mile will, if passed, reduce the L. and N.'s receipts in this State $300,000 a year.

The Court of Appeals has affirmed the judgment of Ryal against the Kentucky Central for $2,500 damages for loss of one leg. The case was taken up from Covington, and the judgment now amounts to about $15,000.

At a meeting of passenger agents at Cincinnati recently a rate was fixed for the Grand Army convention at Washington next fall. One cent a mile for the round trip was proposed, and agreed to by the agents. The rate will be extended to all friends of the Grand Army members who wish to go with them.

For the Farmer.
Last month's receipts of live stock at Chicago were 367,013 cattle, 6,076 calves, 675,568 hogs, 167,235 sheep, and 9,926 horses; as against 223,413 cattle, 6,012 calves, 933,873 hogs, 175,217 sheep and 12,198 horses for February, 1891.

Says the Harrodsburg Democrat: "Geo. W. Vanarsdall, one of Mercer's best farmers, says in regard to the wheat prospect in his section he never saw it better. He has 130 acres on his place that looks very fine, and, in passing recently from Mercer into Boyle and on to Danville, he states that all the wheat he saw looked first class. The dry weather before Christmas he claims was an advantage to it. 'Give me dry weather for wheat,' said Mr. Vanarsdall. 'When the weather is dry the earth crumbles and drops around the roots of the wheat, protecting it and causing it to grow.'"

Advertised Letters.
The following is a list of letters remaining in the postoffice at Maysville, Mason County, Ky., for the week ending Tuesday, March 8, 1892:

THOS. A. DAVIS, P. M.

A Dividend of 35 Per Cent.

At a meeting of the Directors of the Southern Fuel Company yesterday afternoon a dividend of 35 per cent. was declared, payable March 15th. The capital is $20,000, and the dividend amounts, therefore, to $7,000.

It is learned that the company is in a position to declare a dividend of 35 per cent. monthly right along for several months.

LAWLER FITZGERALD, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Fitzgerald, died this morning at 5 o'clock at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Harbeson, of Augusta. The little one's critical illness from an attack of scarlet fever was mentioned a few days ago. She was about two years and six months of age. The many friends of the family will regret to learn the sad news and their sincere sympathy goes out to the bereaved parents in this hour of sorrow. The date and place of the funeral have not been learned.

A MEMBER of the Monarch Oil Company, of Cincinnati, came up yesterday on a search for J. C. Pinnick. Pinnick was found with relatives near Orangeburg and returned to Cincinnati to-day. He has been driving a wagon for the company, but the team disappeared with him when he left a few days ago. The company thought he had disposed of it, but he says he left it in a stable at Cincinnati. He got behind in his accounts, and says he came up to make arrangements to settle his shortage. If the team is turned over all right, the matter will likely be settled satisfactorily to all parties.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

GERMANTOWN.

H. B. Galbraith has been seriously sick for several days.

Miss Birdie Harris will teach a select school at Hillsdale.

Mr. Fowler lost a wagon horse last week. It died of tetanus.

Miss Morrison is the guest of the Misses Irwin, of Chestnut Grove.

Miss Alice Lloyd, after spending the winter in Arkansas, has returned to her father's.

Miss Sue Worthington will spend several weeks as guest of her aunt, Mrs. G. R. Keller, of Carlisle.

Mrs. Wm. Mullican has purchased the property in which they now reside, of Thomas Worthington; consideration, $350.

The meeting at Woodward Chapel will continue during this week. The pastor is assisted by Rev. Baird, of Mt. Olivet.

Quite a number of our young people attended the historic performance at the Baptist Church in Mt. Vernon, Tenn., last night.

Farmers are well up with their spring work. Tobacco beds burned and sowed and great deal of soil plowed. The favorable weather has improved the appearance of the wheat crop very much.

Mrs. Frank McIntyre, of near Fern Leaf, died last Friday, of pneumonia, and was buried on the following day in Maple Grove Cemetery. The funeral discourse was preached by Elder Wm. Hall at the Christian Church.

Our young ladies are taking advantage of the fine weather and displaying their equestrianship. Your correspondent may some time soon, at the risk of his life, attempt a description of the performance of each particular one, and tie the ribbon on the most stylish. It is doubtless fun for the young ladies, but the poor horses "don't see it that way."

MAYSLEICK.

The farmers are busy with their spring work. J. A. Jackson has received Pratt's celebrated poultry food; also for horses, cattle and hogs.

Distant thunder last Monday night. Sign that spring has opened, or more ground hog winter—the latter, we fear.

Uncle Jimmie Hoy, who has been living among us for a number of years, will leave this week for Cincinnati, where he expects to make his future home.

T. Lally and M. Donovan, of Maysville, and Miss Katie Coughlin, of Augusta, and Miss Lizzie Coughlin, of Germantown, were guests of Miss Minnie Hanley last Sunday.

A collection was taken up last Sunday at the Christian Church for foreign missions. Amount, $70. A small audience but a rousing sermon to the point by Elder F. M. Tucker.

A COMPLETE FIZZLE.

The Attempt to Organize a Hill Club at Paris—Eight Voters at the Meeting.

The second attempt to organize a Hill Club at Paris was made Monday, and the fact that the great Hill organ of the West hasn't even mentioned it is very significant. To be brief, it was a complete fizzle.

A special from Paris to the Louisville Commercial says: "Four weeks ago a call was advertised several times for a meeting to be held at the court house for the purpose of forming a club, and only twenty-four voters responded. An adjournment was made until Monday, County Court day, when it was said that a thousand men would join. Although there were 3,000 countrymen attending court, only eight voters met at the second meeting.

It is said that officers were elected and a resolution was passed stating that this club was not antagonistic to Carlisle or any other Kentuckian, whose name might be presented at the National convention. A resolution was adopted calling on Senator Hill to come to Kentucky and address the club, after which it adjourned sine die.

The Bourbon News says the temporary officers chosen a month ago were made the permanent officers by the eight voters present. Just think of a club that can't muster more than eight voters inviting Hill to come all the way from New York to address them. But that's all the craze now. Of course he'll come.

"A Breezy Time."

Says the Chattanooga News, September 2nd: "A Breezy Time" kept the audience laughing at the new opera house last night, and Fitz's topical song 'Laugh and Grow Fat' was put into execution. Remarkable versatility was shown by each member of the large company, and the entertainment was one of much excellence. Every vocal number and instrumental production were encored once and twice again. The voices of the members of the company showed they had ability in that line. Besides the fact that 'A Breezy Time' is amusing, it is doubly entertaining because of its refinement.

This sparkling farce comedy will be the attraction at the opera house to-morrow night. Tickets on sale at Nelsons.

Houston Cure for Drunkenness.

The Houston Narcotic Cure Company, of Omaha, Nebraska, just opened a branch office last week, at Lexington, for the cure of drunkenness, and the morphine, opium, cocaine and tobacco habits. It is owned and operated by a syndicate of leading citizens, composed of Judge Mat. Walton, D. F. Frazee, Judge S. G. Sharpe, G. A. DeLong, J. R. Couch, H. D. Rodman, Hon. C. Allford, Dr. W. L. Elmore and W. H. Boswell. The office is in the Johns Block, opposite the Custom House. Patients are coming in daily, and letters of inquiry are pouring in from different sections of the State. Indications are the Institute will have a hundred people in a few weeks. Hundreds of people have been cured by the remedy in different states.

Church Troubles at California.

The Cincinnati Post has a special from California which says: "The Methodist Conference broke up suddenly Monday night in a state of excitement. Rev. Northcutt, in his discourse on the history of the church, brought out the bloody shirt and waved it to the extent that Rev. Mr. Minor, of the M. E. Church, South, took exception to what was said and for awhile pandemonium reigned. Cooler heads took in the situation and quiet was finally restored. Rev. Minor gave notice that he would lecture at some future time on the history of the church, and would take particular pains to invite the M. E. Conference to hear him."

If the facts were known, it would no doubt be found that the trouble has been greatly exaggerated by the correspondent. Mr. Northcutt was a resident of Maysville a few years ago.

A Sham Battle.

Two residents of Owenton, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Baker, were recently divorced on the ground of abandonment by the husband, incompatibility of temper, etc. It was in evidence that they had a violent quarrel with each other at their boarding house. Since the divorce was granted Mrs. Baker has published a card in the Owen News explaining that the separation was agreed upon, and that the quarrel was a sham battle, and describing how each had politely insisted on being allowed to become the "offending party." The husband gallantly claimed the privilege of incurring the censure that must rest upon the apparent offender until explanation could be made after the divorce, so they pretended to quarrel, he left home, was charged with cruelty and desertion and generally torn to pieces by the tongue of gossip. Now the ex-wife confesses the deception in order to clear the reputation of her late husband, whom she refers as "one of her truest friends."—Courier-Journal.

THE Filson Club of Louisville will celebrate the centennial of the State June 1.

The people have an opportunity to buy goods of W. L. Thomas & Brother at lower prices than ever offered before. The stock must go, as they have to give up their store room in a very short time.

CLARK COUNTY has a negro who is eighty-one years old and who is only three feet in height and weighs but forty-seven pounds. His name is Normal Argo, and in his young days he was a noted jockey.

THE statement of the condition of the First National Bank on March 1st, published elsewhere, shows individual deposits amounting to $308,112.61, nearly $10,000 undivided profits, and nearly $500,000 loans and discounts.

THE many friends of Mrs. Jennie Clark will be glad to learn that her hearing has been restored. She has been afflicted with partial deafness for years, and has been a great sufferer. Her cure is claimed to be a direct answer to prayer.

BEING compelled to give up their store room about the first of March, W. L. Thomas & Brother have made a still further reduction in their prices and are now offering any thing in their immense stock at prices never before offered in this market.

MR. ROBERT ANDREWS, of Flemingsburg, was driving to Maysville yesterday afternoon when the horse attached to his cart stumbled and fell, receiving very serious bruises. The animal is being cared for at Daulton Bros' stable. The occupants of the buggy escaped without injury.

A REDUCED rate of fare of one and one-third for round trip has been allowed on all railroads to delegates to the Republican State convention, at Louisville, and to delegates to the several district conventions. Delegates should secure certificates from their home agent of whom they purchase tickets.

JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY's income from his readings and recitations equals a bank President's salary, while Bill Nye in 1891 cleared $40,000 from his appearances on the rostrum. Max O'Rell and Will Carleton get $200 a night from their managers, and George W. Cable gets $100 every time he reads.

YOUR choice ladies' lace pins and earrings, $1, regular price $1.50 and $2. Choice gent's scarf pins, 75 cents, regular price $1 and $1.50. These goods are warranted to wear five years. Gent's cuff-buttons 60 cents, reduced from $1 and $1.25, at P. J. Murphy's, the Jeweler, successor to Hopper & Murphy.

IN the absence of Lieutenant Governor Alford the other morning, Senator Poyntz called the Senate to order and presided over the body for a few hours. The Frankfort correspondent of the Courier-Journal says: "He fitted as nicely into the chair and wielded the gavel with as much grace as if they had been made for him."

REV. JOHN S. HAYS, D. D., will commence a protracted meeting at the First Presbyterian Church to-morrow night. Dr. McKee, Vice President of Centre College, Danville, will arrive the last of the week, and will preach next Sunday and each evening next week. The public cordially invited to attend. Services will begin at 7:30 p. m.

IT costs about $1,200 per day to keep the Legislature going, but it is doubtful if a single member ever takes that fact into consideration for a moment. Day after day they fritter away the few short hours they are in session, with wrangling over some unimportant resolution or in trifling parliamentary tilts. We are glad the new Constitution limited future sessions of the General Assembly to sixty days.

JUDGE HARBESON, of Flemingsburg, was in town Tuesday, greeting his many friends. It is pretty well known that he is a candidate for Circuit Judge, but he hasn't authorized the BULLETIN to say so. His announcement will no doubt appear in due time. He has demonstrated his running qualities in past years, and the man who gets in under the wire ahead of him always has to hustle. It is about definitely settled that the new district will be composed of the counties of Mason, Bracken, Fleming, Lewis and Greenup.

BASIL L. WILLIAMS, whose death at New Richmond was mentioned Monday, was born in October, 1823, near Shannon, this county, and during his boyhood lived in that neighborhood. When quite a young man he came to this city and resided here until the spring of 1865, when he moved with his family to New Richmond, O. In 1854, he married Miss Rebecca Williamson, of New Richmond. She lived but a few years, however, and in 1860 he married Miss Adelaide Warren, of New Albany, Ind. He was a man of many good qualities. Blessed with an excellent constitution and physique, endowed with a disposition and temperament of a pleasant character, he was a favorite with those who knew him, popular and respected by his many friends and acquaintances.

HOW IT TURNED OUT.

An Elopement Provided for by the Father of the Bride.

PITTSBURG, March 9.—The announcement of the secret marriage of Ernest Wakefield, a young clerk, and Miss Clark, daughter of Dr. H. H. Clark, the well known physician and iron manufacturer, was made yesterday.

Wakefield and Miss Clark met last summer and the couple fell in love. In due time young Wakefield called at the Clark residence, but as soon as the girl's parents became aware of the relations existing between the young couple he was ordered to keep away from the place.

Last Friday the young couple went to Allegheny, where they were married. After the ceremony they went to the Clark residence, where they hoped to be forgiven and extended the usual blessings. Such was not the greeting they received.

Old man Clark flew into a great rage. He drew up a check for $2,000, which he gave to Wakefield, telling him to take it and go with his daughter and never return to Pittsburgh. Young Wakefield and his bride are now in Chicago, where they are spending their honeymoon.

A HYPNOTIC WRECK.

Pitiable Condition of a Youth Who is Now Missing.

CANTON, O., March 9.—Thomas Nauman, aged seventeen, son of a highly respected family, has disappeared, and his parents are at their wits' end. Young Nauman is very susceptible to mesmeric influences, and during the past winter has been a constant attendant at mesmeric entertainments given by Professor J. E. Kennedy. His father fears that he has been impelled to leave town by the professor, who is in Baltimore this week.

The Baltimore police have been notified. Mr. Nauman says his son's mind has been impaired to such an extent that he fears insanity. The boy has been known to grab his hat and leave home for the open house, where the hypnotic show was given, after making a vain effort to keep away. Local physicians are greatly interested in the case.

JOKED BEFORE THE GIBBET.

Execution of a Wife Slayer Who Claimed His Innocence.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 9.—Charles Wall was hanged in the prison yard of the Wyoming county jail at Tunkhannock yesterday for the murder of his wife. In his cell all the morning Wall laughed and joked for over two hours before the execution and indulged in profane remarks.

He gave no sign whatever of sorrow or repentance, claiming all the time that he was innocent and knew nothing of the crime. He said he was sober at the time the murder was committed, but was dazed with sickness, believing that he had been poisoned before he left home, and was not responsible for what he did when he returned.

Nitro-Glycerine Explosion.

FINDLAY, O., March 9.—The nitro-glycerine magazine of the High Explosive company, located two miles west of this city, exploded at noon yesterday and caused a shock all over northwestern Ohio as if from an earthquake. Several farm houses were badly damaged and thousands of panes of window glass in Findlay broken, but no lives were lost. A fire in the building caused the explosion. The loss has not yet been learned.

A Fifty Thousand Disagreement.

CANTON, O., March 9.—Attorney J. B. Michener has been appointed receiver for the firm of Haymaker & Housel, the largest liverymen in Stark county, upon application of Haymaker, who charges Housel with loose management of the business. The disagreement caused a big sensation, owing to the character of the charges made. The firm's property is valued at $50,000.

Glass Works Consolidation.

BELLAIRE, O., March 9.—Negotiations are in progress here for the consolidation of the four big window glass plants in this city. The concerns are the Enterprise, the Crystal, the Bellaire and the Union glass works. The purposes is to cut down operating expense and increase the output. The combined concerns employ about 1,000 persons.

Gone to Fire a Cattle King.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 8.—Company D, First cavalry, left Presidio yesterday for Round Valley, Indian reservation. They went to expel White, "the Mendocino Cattle King," who, when grass grows short, is in the habit of driving his cattle on to the reservation.

Silver Found in Indiana.

ANDERSON, Ind., March 9.—Workmen, in drilling a gas well for the Depauw plate glass works at Alexandria, struck a vein of rich silver ore 300 feet below the surface. There is big excitement on account of the find.

Assaulted by Highwaymen.

VALPARAISO, Ind., March 9.—Robert Hickey, of Whiting, was assaulted by four masked men last night and beaten into insensibility. The robbers only succeeded in securing $17. Hickey is connected with the Standard Oil company.

Small Collision.

CAPE MAY, March 9.—The north-bound express leaving here at 9:25 p. m., collided at Cape May court house with the Angelsea train. The passengers were badly shaken up and frightened. The engine was disabled and the baggage car wrecked.

Big Fire at Canton.

CANTON, O., March 9.—Fire early Tuesday morning in the shoe and boot store of Danner & Wolf, at 26 and 27 Mahoning street, did damage aggregating $6,000. Covered by insurance. Origin of fire unknown.

Ex-Congressman Dead.

COLUMBUS, O., March 9.—Ex-member of the General Assembly Lot L. Smith died suddenly at his home here yesterday. He was a member of the Charleston Democratic convention in 1860.

MARLOW'S METHOD.

The Young Defaulter Claims to Be Innocent.

CLOVERPORT, Ky., March 9.—Jesse Marlow, the embezzling Cincinnati Coopers company agent, declares that he is innocent of the charges, and says that if he had access to the company's books that he could prove to their satisfaction that it was their mistake, and not his. He says that the officers of the company here were willing to grant that investigation in their presence, and that they would hold themselves personally responsible for the prisoner's safe return to the charge of the sheriff.

The request was granted, and the investigation is now going on secretly in the company's office. It is rumored that the coopers company does not care particularly to prosecute him, and that in this secret consultation he will make his shortage good, and the commonwealth will be stood off with the report that it was all a mistake. Marlow's health is bad, and he has the sympathy of the public. He escaped from the guard Sunday morning, but was recaptured at his home in bed.

His mode of fraudulent work consisted in making out false checks in fictitious names, then having them cashed himself, claiming that he had bought them at a "shave."

Died of Excitement.

FRANKLIN, Ind., March 9.—Bailey Joliffe suddenly dropped dead at a sale held three miles south of here. Mr. Joliffe, it seems, became involved in a little dispute with the auctioneer concerning some books which had been "knocked off" to him, and in turning to leave the room, he fell to the floor a corpse. The cause of his sudden death is attributed to heart trouble. Deceased was sixty years of age, and leaves a wife and four children.

Found Out After Death.

LOUISVILLE, March 9.—Mrs. Mary Libbie Farnham, who was accused of blackmailing the Home of the Innocents in this city last summer, now turns out to have been a sister of Mrs. Theodore Tilton, of the Beecher-Tilton scandal. This fact was brought to light from a letter received here a few days ago from Mrs. Tilton, inquiring after property belonging to Mrs. Farnham. Mrs. Farnham died in Lexington last December.

Birth and Death of a Freak.

BRAZIL, Ind., March 9.—The medical fraternity of this locality are exercised over a freak of nature. Yesterday Mrs. Any Biggs gave birth to a baby with two separate and distinct heads that were well formed and complete. One neck and one body, all naturally formed, served to make up the rest of the child. It lived but one hour, but in that time it cried lustily from both mouths.

Attempted to Pass Forged Notes.

KANKAKEE, Ills., March 9.—George Cignere, a young Canadian, who has been visiting his uncle at St. Anne was arrested here yesterday while attempting to pass two forged notes amounting to $1,300 on a Kankakee bank. The notes bore the name of A. Robillard and other prominent men. Robillard is Cignere's uncle.

An Old Crime Recalled.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 9.—District Attorney Garman, of this county, received a telegram from the authorities in Italy stating that Bovivono and Villala, who with "Red Nosed Mike," in October, 1899, killed Pymaster McClure and Flanagan, his assistant, will be tried for murder on the 20th of this month.

Secretary Blaine Still in Bed.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Secretary Blaine is still confined to his bed with the grip. His temperature is two or three degrees above normal. His condition is not regarded as serious by either his family, or by his physician, but it will be some time before he is able to resume charge of the state department.

Right in the Penitentiary.

COLUMBUS, O., March 9.—There was a bloody fight between two convicts at the penitentiary yesterday. Lafayette Grayson, a fifteen-year man from Muskingum for manslaughter, and another prisoner, named William Johnson, quarreled. Johnson cut Grayson severely in the back and neck. Grayson was taken to the prison hospital. The wound is not fatal.

Will Manufacture Smokeless Powder.

PHILADELPHIA, March 9.—The United States government has determined upon the manufacture of smokeless powder for use in both small arms and heavy ordnance, and with this object in view, Captain Pitman, the well known ordnance officer and chemist, has been detailed by General Flagler, chief of ordnance, U. S. A., to take charge of the laboratory at the Frankfort arsenal.

Afraid He Will Escape.

VALPARAISO, Ind., March 9.—A close watch has been established over Dan Havelin, the notorious Crown Point fire-bug, to prevent his escape from jail. Havelin had succeeded in filing the iron bars, and but for the timely discovery of Sheriff Turner, would have succeeded in securing his liberty. It is believed that he has friends who are conniving at his release.

Residence Burned.

BRAZIL, Ind., March 9.—The house of Henry Graham, three miles south of this city, was entirely destroyed by fire last night. The contents were also consumed, while the occupants had a narrow escape with their lives. The loss is about $2,000 with no insurance. The fire is supposed to have been incendiary.

A Millionaire's Sudden Demise.

ST. LOUIS, March 9.—Colonel Louis Ducrest, the largest single holder of stock in the famous Granite mountain silver mine, died here yesterday. He ruptured a blood vessel of the heart in stepping from a street car (he weighed 300 pounds) and died almost immediately. Colonel Ducrest acquired his rank in the late war as a volunteer. He was sixty years old at the time of his death. By the Granite mountain strike he rose suddenly from comparatively nothing to a multi-millionaire.
